Marshall County Had Biggest Group At Park Meeting

Organization of the Between the Rivers National Park Association was completed at a meeting held Tuesday night at Kenlake Hotel.

Smith Broadbent Jr., of Cadiz, who conducted the meeting, was elected president of the group, which is seeking to establish a national park in this area.

Three directors were chosen from each of the counties in the area of the proposed national park. Marshall County's three directors are Bill Tanner, Frank Ashley and Shelby McCallum, all of Benton.

Marshall County had the largest delegation present at the meeting, which had a total attendance of 200 enthusiastic persons. The dinner meeting was held in the Kenlake private dining room.

Six Kentucky counties and two Tennessee counties had delegations at the gathering. Enthusiasm generated at the meeting indicated those present felt the federal government would approve of establishing a national park in this section.

Secretary of Interior Udall, Governor Combs of Kentucky and Governor Ellington of Tennessee will visit the proposed park area on Aug. 28.

The Benton Kiwanis Club has voted a resolution favoring establishment of the park, and sent copies of the resolution to federal and state officials.

Other clubs and organizations all over Marshall County should follow the lead of the Kiwanis Club, and send resolutions to federal and state officials.

Establishment of a national park in this section would help make this area one of the most popular tourist spots in the Central States.

Citizens of Marshall County will want to do everything possible to help establish a national park between the rivers.

20 Years Ago

Twenty years ago, our nation was just beginning to emerge from a long and serious financial depression. Pricewise, everything was cheap—at least in comparison with 1961 prices. Back in 1941, which, of course, was 20 years ago, the local Kroger store was advertising a 24-ounce loaf of bread for only 9 cents. Maxwell House coffee was only 29 cents for a pound can. Six small cans of condensed milk were only 23 cents. And two 11-ounce boxes of cornflakes were only 15 cents. Chewing gum sold at 10 cents for 3 packages, and razor blades were only 10 cents for a package of 10. Chuck roast was 23 cents a pound, choice sirloin steak was 35 cents a pound and frankfurters were only 15 cents per pound. Compare those prices with today's prices. And you have what is commonly termed as inflation.

In reading the old 1941 news, a wedding in July of that year was of interest. Miss Betty Shemwell of Benton had become the bride of McCullough Partee of Nashville. The ceremony had been held in Union City, Tenn.

The Benton Lions Club had held a picnic at Gilbertsville. President of the club was Graham Wilkins.

Among the Marshall County boys who had gone to CCC Camp were James Thomas King, Fred Doughty, Velda Pace, William Euel Ross, Hugh Irvan Mathis, Paul G. Noles and Thomas W. Holley.

Jewell Atwood of Elva had returned home from Washington, D.C., where he had completed a course in radio and television repair work.

The Bank of Marshall County had installed a new and modern door to its vault.

Among the county students who had completed summer school at Murray College were Kathleen Wallace, Novalee Roberts, Marvin Prince, Hatler E. Morgan, Ray Moffield, Remas Long, Attie Mae Little, Mary Atherline Lawrence, Mary Beth Hall, Lowell V. Henson, Earlene Franklin, Robert G. Fiser, Lu-nell Culp, Robert Owen Cope, Fred Chumler Jr., Edith Marie Brandon, Joseph Franklin Brandon and Wanda M. Arant.

And that, folks, is all the 1941 news for this week. See you soon.

Mrs. James Curtis and daughter, Regina, of Route 5 visited Mrs. Roy Phillips Friday.

Mrs. Sylvia Defew of Kuttawa spent Friday in the home of Mrs. Roy Phillips in Benton.

Wilma Ann Evans Becomes Bride Of James C. Walker

Miss Wilma Ann Evans became the bride of James Carroll Walker on Saturday, Aug. 5, at 4:30 p.m. in the home of the bride's parents at Gilbertsville. The Rev. John R. Flynn performed the double-ring ceremony in the presence of the couple's immediate families. The couple stood at the altar between tall candelabra. The bride was attired in a white chiffon street-length dress and wore a tiara of pearls with an elbow-length veil. She carried a white Bible topped with an arrangement of white roses. Her attendant, Mrs. Charles Grote of Lawrenceburg, wore an emerald green silk dress with a matching headpiece and a pink carnation corsage. The groom chose as his best man his brother-in-law, Ray Solomon. The couple went on a short honeymoon and now are at home at Clinton.

Shrinks Hemorrhoids Without Surgery
Stops Itch—Relieves Pain

For the first time science has found a new healing substance with the astonishing ability to shrink hemorrhoids and to relieve pain—without surgery. In case after case, while gently relieving pain, actual reduction (shrinkage) took place. Most amazing of all—results were so thorough that sufferers made astonishing statements like "Piles have ceased to be a problem!" The secret is a new healing substance (Bio-Dyne®)—discovery of a world-famous research institute. This substance is now available in suppository or ointment form called Preparation H®. At all drug counters.

Mr. Faughn was graduated "with distinction" from Murray State College in June 1960. He is a member of Pi Kappa Alpha fraternity. Mr. Faughn is working on his master's degree in physics at the University of Kentucky.

The wedding will be an event of early September.

Eva Darlene Cook, Jerry Baker Wed

Miss Eva Darlene Cook became the bride of Jerry Lee Baker on Friday, July 21. The Rev. J. Frank Young performed the ceremony in the sanctuary of the First Missionary Baptist Church at Benton.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lonnie C. Cook of Benton. The groom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Minos Baker, also of Benton.

Miss Carol Thompson and Morris Carcraft were the only attendants.

Larry Fieldson is spending this week in Mayfield with his sister, Mrs. Joel Allen.

Miss English Is Wed To Don W. Baker

Miss Doris Janelle English, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dewey English, became the bride of Don W. Baker, son of Mr. and Mrs. Javie Baker, at 2 o'clock Saturday afternoon, Aug. 12, in Immanuel Baptist Church in Paducah.

The Rev. T. L. Campbell of Briensburg performed the double-ring ceremony before an altar banked with palms, ferns, and baskets of white gladioli. Cathedral tapers in candelabra burned throughout the ceremony. The family pews were marked with large white satin bows.

As the wedding guests assembled, Mrs. J. T. Heflin, organist, presented a program of nuptial music. The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of white silk organza over ruffled tiers of imported French tulle and taffeta. Re-embroidered Alencon lace motifs outlined the scooped neckline and elbow-length sleeves. The bouffant skirt, trimmed with lace motifs, was worn over hoops. Her veil of French illusion was attached to a tiara of seed pearls. Her only jewelry was a strand of pearls, gift of the groom.

The bride carried a bouquet of split carnations and lilies of the valley, interspersed with stephanotis and centered with gladioli.

The maid of honor, Miss Marilyn Clark, was attired in a dress of white lace over pale green satin. Her headpiece was a crown of the same material as her dress, with a circular net veil. She wore white gloves and shoes and carried a colonial bouquet of white carnations tied with pale green satin ribbons.

The flower girl, Glenda Kaye Robertson, wore a pale pink organza dress and matching headpiece. She carried a basket trimmed with net and ribbon which was filled with deep pink carnations.

The candles were lighted by Phyllis Baker, sister of the groom.

Serving as best man was Eddy Shaffer of Paducah. Ushers were Bill York of Benton Route 6 and Jack Heflin of Mayfield.

After a wedding trip to the Smoky Mountains the couple are making their home in Paducah.

AMY ADAMS

GREEDY SON IS ALSO GREEDY SON

My husband's mother wants to come live with us. All I have are 3 bedrooms and they are all taken. I have two boys and a girl. Besides we live upstairs and the climbing would be too much for her since she must go to the doctor every day.

She has a daughter who just built a new 3 bedroom house and has no children; her oldest daughter is a widow with two grown-up girls. One son has a nice new home and the other son is still a bachelor. So why pick on us?

We are only renting. If she goes to a home, we will all have to pay for her support and we will have to cut expenses to meet these payments. Why can't she use her property to pay part of her bill? Hoping you can answer this in your column soon.

Anxious A.B.C.

Dear A.B.C.: Why does your mother-in-law have to pick on you? Obviously because her other 4 children concocted excuses why she can't live with them (just as you have). I think she should go to a home. Living with any of you would be anything but pleasant.

Her property might be sufficient to take care of the costs. If it isn't, the five of you are required (by law) to pay for her keep. By the way, what plans have YOU in mind for your old age?

Dear Amy: I have a pretty big problem which I can't understand. I'm 17 years old and not bad looking, but I'm a little overweight—about ten pounds. I have a nice personality and can talk to boys without getting nervous. I'm friendly at school and I know how to dance. Above all, I'm not conceited. But I don't have any dates and this I can't understand. I have friends at school but I think most of the guys consider me a "friend."

Desperate: You have every attribute for popularity. But I have one suggestion. Drop those ten pounds. Perhaps then the boys will "figure" you differently.

South Benton News

By LAVADA SIRES

I want to say hello to Mrs. Cora Davis of Arizona, and also to Mr. and Mrs. Scott Greenfield of Florida. They say they like to read these lines.

As I look out my window and see the rain falling on the green fields, I think how good the Lord is to send the rain at the right time for the corn crops. Also he sent us a timely rain for our blackberries.

I thought I had retired, but when the blackberries got ripe I went blackberry picking. And I canned 26 quarts, and froze some. I also have canned that many peaches, so I guess I won't ever retire as long as I can find something to do. The Lord has blessed everyone with fresh new corn, tomatoes, lima beans, squash, cucumbers, and many other vegetables for which we should be thankful.

By the way, I'm thinking of taking a vacation myself if I can ever get caught up with my work. I want to visit my sister's children at Bowling Green. I've already been dropping a few things in my suitcase. But I mean to wait until the garden rush is over.

I intend to take another vacation that grows richer with time and needs no earthly money. I think of it when I hear talk of space travel and satellites. I'm planning a thousand years of vacation beyond the stars.

I first began to plan this vacation when I read in the Bible about the thousand years, or millennium. I learned long ago that God made plans for the evacuation of His people from the strife and evil of this earth, and advertised it through His prophets.

I have searched the records to find out all I could. It seemed too good to be true, but it is true. It is a part of Divine plan for the redemption of our world.

I will not be alone on this vacation, for it is free to all who make up their minds to go. All the righteous of the ages will have a part, and will be caught up in a cloud to meet the Lord in the air. I am planning to take that vacation, and there also is plenty of room for you. Please go along with me.

Eva Gray Hicks Becomes Bride In Ceremony At Church

Miss Eva Gray Hicks and Glen F. Brown were united in marriage at the Church Grove Methodist Church at 2 o'clock, Sunday afternoon, Aug. 13.

The pastor of the church, Rev. Fred Alexander, performed the double ring ceremony before a bridal arch entwined in greenery and white gladioli interspersed between the arch and wrought iron candelabra holding white candles.

Mrs. Jerry Maupin was matron of honor, and Miss Wilma Spaw was bridesmaid.

Jerry Maupin attended the groom as best man.

Mrs. Bobby Miller presented the nuptial piano selections.

The bride was attired for her wedding in a floor-length white satin gown overlaid with lace. Her fingertip veil of illusion was caught at the crown with sequins. She wore a white carnation corsage.

Mrs. Brown is a graduate of Benton High School and is employed at the telephone office in Murray. She is the daughter of Mrs. Irene Hicks of Benton Route 1.

Mr. Brown, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Euclid Brown of Hardin Route 1, is a graduate of South Marshall High School. He is a part-time employee at the stove factory, and the radio station in Murray. He will be a senior this fall at Murray College.

A reception was held immediately after the wedding in the church basement. Over 200 persons attended the wedding and reception.
